

NEW ELDER'S

Session's New Elders

Lorna Andronikou

Lorna has been a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church since 1989 when she moved to Calgary with her family. As a young adult, Lorna began volunteering as a Sunday School teacher and, aside from a few years in between, has been teaching Sunday School at St. Andrew's since then. She is currently an active member of the Faith Formation Team with a passion for supporting the youngest members of the church to learn to Grow.LIFE.Together.With God. Lorna is also the coordinator of the ConnXions newsletter that goes out to the congregation once every two months. Lorna sat on the Search Committee and convened that group for the last year of its existence. Lorna is married to Michalis Andronikou, who teaches music composition, theory, and aural skills at Ambrose University. Lorna and Michalis have a 6-year-old son, Andreas, who is an active member of St. Andrew's church school family. Andreas is in grade 1 and attends school at Glenmore Christian Academy. In her free time, when not accompanying Andreas on his busy activities throughout the week, Lorna enjoys reading, yoga, and meeting up with friends when she is able. Lorna is a social worker by trade and is currently working as a Business Strategist for The City of Calgary on the Policy & Bylaw Development team. She previously worked as an Issue Strategist supporting Calgary's Mental Health & Addiction Strategy, and prior to that, was a Youth Probation Officer. Lorna enjoys supporting and advocating for vulnerable Calgarians. She looks forward to bringing those advocacy skills to St. Andrew's Session!

Deanne Barrett

Deanne has grown up at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and benefited from mentorship and support from this congregation as a youth; as a teen and young adult Deanne attended many Presbyterian Church in Canada national youth events and General Assembly. Deanne served for a short time as Youth Minister here at St. Andrew's just as she was starting her teaching career. Deanne attends worship with her parents, Pat and Clare Lomheim, and her two children, Josh and Inara. In her downtime, Deanne loves walking in Fish Creek Park and curling up with a good book.

Bill Judd

Bill joined St Andrew's with Lynn and growing family in Feb 1985; was ordained as and Elder in 1990 and served on Session until 2022; and now looks forward to participating in that capacity again. Bill has been involved in a variety of Mission initiatives, a leader of the Sunday morning Bible Study, and a mainstay in St Andrew's music scene. He is very much enjoying retirement from the work-a-day world, spending more time with family and friends, including what he calls his 'extended family' at St Andrew's. Bill and Lynn have three adult children and two grandchildren, all living in Calgary - something they cherish just as much as they are allowed to.

David Townsend

David and Marlyn joined St. Andrew's about 2014. David is a CPA and has served on the Church Finance Team for many years. He has now retired from that job and is in the initial stages of becoming more involved in St. Andrew's newsletter, ConnXions. Semi-retired from his business, David is honored to be nominated and looks forward to serving in a new role.
