The Art of Neighbouring

By Rev. Dr. Tim Archibald

How much time do you invest in caring for your neighbours? How many of the neighbours on your street can you name? How many of your neighbours know your name? For those who follow Jesus, neighbours are important people. Reformed Theologian Walter Brueggemann reminds us that, “the neighbour is the epicentre of the gospel.” Consider how many times Jesus points us to the needs of our neighbour—whether reminding us that the most important commandment is to “love God and love neighbour,” or in the Parable of the Good Samaritan demonstrating that the plight of our neighbours really matters.

It is in our everyday relationships with others that Kingdom love, peace and justice are administered. Christian faith is an active faith—it’s about doing; and it’s about such everyday action being holy action. The First Letter of John (4:7) says, “Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another.” Or even more to the point, “The command we have from Christ is blunt: Loving God includes loving people. You’ve got to love both.” 1 John 4:21 (The Message)

One of the misfortunes in the long history of the church, as Brueggemann reminds us, is that we have mistakenly separated love of God from love of neighbour; whereas in Scripture they are together in prophetic poetry. Faithful neighbouring includes being active advocates for the vulnerable and the marginalized and people without resources. And this becomes a way to act out and exhibit one’s love of God. So love of God gets translated into love of neighbours.

The enlivening invitation of Kingdom ministry is bringing your gifts, offering them in service—and under Jesus’ guidance letting him do with them whatever he wishes. And why is this so important? If we look closely into our neighbour’s eyes and listen carefully to what they say—we will actually see Jesus there—because the stranger/neighbour brings a divine gift. As Jesus said in Matthew 25:40, “just as you did it to the least of these, you did it to me.”

Mother Theresa’s daily prayer went like this: “Dearest Lord, may I see you today and every day in the person of your sick, and whilst nursing minister to you. Though you hide yourself behind the unattractive disguise of the irritable, the exacting, the unreasonable, may I recognize you and say: ‘Jesus my patient how sweet it is to serve you.’ Lord give me this seeing faith, then my work will never be monotonous.”

One of the ways St. Andrew’s will corporately show love for our neighbours this month is through the Aboriginal Sharing Day—Breaking the Barriers on May 25th, 1:30-7:30pm. Read about details on subsequent pages of ConnXions and plan to be part of this important event. Also, June 15th is Neighbour Day in the City of Calgary—what might you do for your neighbours?

The Event, the Artist and the Art

By Ralph Morris

Over the past many months, a small group of St. Andrew's people have linked with indigenous leaders from the Aboriginal Friendship Centre to co-host an Aboriginal Sharing Day on May 25th, 2019. Our broad objective has been to extend and expand mutual understanding and acceptance within our respective communities. The opening ceremony will take place at 1:30 pm in front of two tipis mounted on our front lawn. Educational demonstrations by First Nations' volunteers will be enhanced with drumming and dancing throughout the event, and a bison feast will conclude the day. There is no charge for attendance.

To facilitate advertising for the event, Ernie Poundmaker from the Aboriginal Friendship Centre suggested that we contact Kalum Teke Dan, a local indigenous artist, well known among the aboriginal community. We discussed the matter over lunch with Kalum, and he agreed we could use one of his recent art pieces (entitled "The Hand") to enhance the text messages about activities on the day. The result was the creation of two posters, a smaller one suitable for posting on bulletin boards, and 30 copies of a larger one (11" X 17") that will be signed and numbered by the artist. The signed posters will be available for sale at $35.00. A digital version of that poster is shown here.

Kalum has become increasingly well known in southern Alberta over the past two decades. His artwork can be viewed locally as a 32' X 36' mural on the west side of a building on 17th Ave. and 12th Street S.W.; and in the new Public Library as one of three large murals to the left as you enter the building. He recently received a substantial contract with the City of Calgary to paint a mural on the sides of a pillar (4' X 4' X 50') inside City Hall in recognition of the 125th anniversary of Calgary, and as part of a reconciliation initiative by the city. We are privileged to have his contribution to this Aboriginal Sharing Event.

Break Forth One

By Stephanie Werle

In January of this year, Lucy Aburto, Mary Jane Curran, Christine Pepper, Christine's sister-in-law Dawn Pepper-Lenci and I attended the Break Forth One conference in Edmonton. Break Forth is built on the platform of One God. One Church. One Weekend, providing a time for Christians to come together to gain renewed energy, deepened faith and rich resources to bring those in attendance into a more meaningful relationship with Christ. Break Forth One seeks to Unify, Serve, Equip and Empower.

The weekend was set up with a Friday night, Saturday morning, Saturday night and Sunday morning mainstage worship. This included amazing music (think Hillsong Worship and Worship Central) and incredible guest speakers. The Shaw Conference Centre was full of hundreds of people deeply engaged in worshipping our God. Saturday and Sunday provided opportunities for small class sessions ranging in topics from leading worship, marriage, parenting, prayer, theology, Christian education, social media etc. There definitely was something for everyone! Each night our little group ended off with long discussions about what we had learned and the questions we now raised.

We left Edmonton basking in the glow of God's love for us; the energy to rediscover our role in His plan; and a deepened friendship with one another. Next year's conference will be held on January 16th and 17th, 2020. We hope you will consider joining us then as we stand and worship as ONE. If you have any questions about Break Forth One, feel free to contact me at swerle@telus.net.

Spiritual Moments

By Elizabeth Dolan

I'm sure that you have heard the expression "God helps those who help themselves." But what happens when you turn it around to "God can really help you if you let Him?"

When I was in my 30s, I was a single woman with a professional career, my own house, a great rescue dog, a pleasant and active life. I had loving family and friends near and far, and a rich involvement in the life of St. Andrew's. LIFE was GOOD and I was grateful for everything. I did, however, feel the lack of a personal relationship and wanted a husband and hopefully children.

So, what do you do when you're a "very competent" woman who has demonstrated that she can achieve so many things "on her own", and you're not having success in obtaining this goal? You have that "AHA" moment and remember all the times you knew God had had influence in making things happen but had put that knowledge aside thinking that it was just your own doing.

My next steps were prayer, reflection, and a request for God to point me in a very specific direction: lead me to a book that would provide me with the direction I needed, and have it cost less than $10.00. Off I went to the Christian Book Store (no longer here, sadly) where I found the right book for $9.95! I don't remember the title but do remember that it was about giving away my control of my life and allowing God to guide me.

It takes two to tango. Around the same time that I was taking this action, my husband-to-be was praying to meet the woman whom God would have be his wife.

Pat and I will be celebrating our 30th anniversary this May, and our daughter Emily will be 29 in June. Praise God!!!

Spring Clean Up

The Facilities group is looking for help to clean up the car parks and gardens of the church. It comprises sweeping the gravel from the south and all car parks and cleaning up the flower beds. Many hands make light work and with the help of coffee and DOUGHNUTS, we can complete the task in a morning. A sign-up sheet will be available for those who would like to help. This is weather dependant so put your phone on too. Thanks - in anticipation.

Scholarship Opportunity

By Rhonda Wishart

St. Andrew's Youth Scholarship Application

Since 2011, St. Andrew's has been awarding an annual $1,000 scholarship to support a deserving St. Andrew's student commencing full-time post-secondary studies.

The scholarship originated in memory of St. Andrew's member, Chuck Ogilvie, with funds donated by his family and friends and was continued in memory of St. Andrew's member, Esther Speers. For the past several years, the annual scholarship has been predominantly funded by the generosity of the Ladies Guild. Anyone wishing to make a donation to the scholarship fund, can contact the office for details.

Scholarship application forms for those students planning on attending post-secondary education in the fall of 2019, are now available in the office or by contacting Rhonda Wishart, Chair of Christian Education, at cuthberj@telus.net

Application forms must be completed and returned to Rhonda by May 30th, 2019.

Congratulations to Lorie and Flemming Nielsen who celebrate their 55th wedding anniversary this month.

Summer Bible Study

Nicola Cameron

The Summer Bible Study this year is on the Patriarchs. Classes run Wednesday evenings from June 12th to August 21st at 7:00 pm in the Inner Hall.

"El Roi. He sees through the smile we wear when we're dying inside. He sees our hurt when we're mistreated. He sees us when we cry into our pillow because we feel unloved. He sees beyond our sin into the depth of our need. He sees when we're hiding. Running. He sees when we continue to sow the seed of His Word even in the floodplain of our grief."

Do you experience these things? Do you experience El Roi, The LORD, The Almighty God who invited Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Joseph into a wild ride to bless everyone on earth? Do you relate to Sarah, Hagar, Rachel, Bilhah and Rebecca in their wild adventures? Would you like to know more? We watch the videos every Wednesday through the summer. You are invited to join us just for the discussion, or you can buy a work book and get in depth and personal with the God Who Sees. He really is as wonderful as He's made out to be!

For more information and to order your study guide, call Nicola Cameron at 403-251-9701

Calgary Interfaith Council

The Calgary Interfaith Council strongly condemns the cowardly and inhumane terrorist attack against Christians, foreign tourists, and the people of Sri Lanka that took the lives of 300 innocent men, women and children. The attack was particularly heinous in that it took place in sacred spaces on a religious holiday. Such contempt for religious freedom undermines any semblance of humanity on the part of the terrorists who cannot hide behind the veil of any religious tradition for their legitimacy. We offer prayers of condolence and our resources to enable the victims of this terrorism to mourn their losses and restore themselves in dignity and compassion.

Spiritual Director Training

Sr. Madeleine Gregg

Starting September, 2019, the FCJ Christian Life Centre will begin training a new group of spiritual directors in our two-year, part-time certificate program.

Spiritual direction is a ministry of spiritual accompaniment given by one Christian to help another Christian journey towards the fullness of God. You can read more about the nature and practice of spiritual direction at <https://www.sdiworld.org/find-a-spiritual-director/what-is-spiritual-direction>.

This ecumenical program meets on Wednesday evenings and includes four weekend retreats. It is open to men and women who desire to deepen their own spiritual formation, and who believe that God is calling them to the ministry of one-on-one companioning with people who are seeking a deeper relationship with God.

We have space for 20 in the program; several people have already sent in their applications, been interviewed and been accepted.

For more information, please visit our website www.FCJCentre (under Spiritual Direction Training Program). For an application packet or if you have questions, please contact Sr. Madeleine Gregg, FCJ at 403-228-4215, or visit the FCJ Centre at 219 - 19th Avenue S.W., Calgary.

Application deadline is May 31st, 2019. We encourage you to get your application in early!

Stewards By Design

Elaine Cantlon

Five members of St. Andrew's, including Rev. Dr. Tim Archibald, will be travelling to Orillia, Ontario for the Stewards by Design conference May 2nd - 5th. The conference, which is offered by the Presbyterian Church in Canada and facilitated by advisor Dr. Kennon Callaghan, is designed to help congregations discover how to nurture generous giving and expand their ministry.

Dr. Callaghan is a pastor and consultant to Christian congregations throughout North America and the world. He is also the author of numerous books beginning with "Twelve Keys to an Effective Church", which focuses on assisting local churches in their strategic long-range planning. Dr. Tim Archibald has attended Stewards by Design in the past. We are grateful for the St. Andrew's Legacy Fund for funding the team's expenses for the conference, a total of $600 per person including flights.

Course participants explore Stewardship as not just about giving and money, but as a spiritual matter concerned with all aspects of life.

Participants learn how congregations might engage in mission and ministry and learn about different ways that people give and a different way of thinking about our church and community. Each member of the team has been given Dr. Callaghan's book, Twelve Keys to an Effective Church to read and discuss. Then they will need to develop a church profile for background of St. Andrew's; it's demographics, finances, mission projects, ministry and lay leadership in preparation for the weekend conference including consultation time with Dr. Callaghan. The team's task will be to develop a plan unique to St. Andrew's to allow our congregation to discover ways to "nurture faithful giving and abundant living."

Your prayers for Rev. Dr. Tim Archibald, Cathy Millar, Stephanie Werle, David Platt and Elaine Cantlon would be greatly appreciated as we journey together in faith to discern more clearly how God is calling us to respond to His grace and goodness in our lives.

With Sympathy

We extend sympathy to Mary and family, on the death of Clive Cracknell on March 31st.

Fall Alpha

By Rev. Dr. Tim Archibald

Alpha returns to St. Andrew's this fall on Wednesday evenings (beginning mid-September). Alpha is about sharing God's love through friendship; it is a welcoming place to explore life, faith and meaning. If you've been sensing it's time to rekindle the flame of faith in your life—this could be the place and time!

Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the basics of Christian faith. We begin each evening with dinner in table groups, followed by a video presentation and open discussion. Each talk looks at a different question around faith and is designed to create conversation.

The new Alpha Film Series is designed for today's audience. It was filmed all around the world, and features interviews with world-famous leaders and inspiring stories. Two new hosts, Toby Flint and Gemma Hunt, join Nicky Gumbel to unpack the basics of the Christian faith in an updated and engaging way.

Explore the meaning of life.

Ask. Learn. Discuss.

Alpha

Alpha is run all around the globe, and everyone's welcome. It runs in cafés, churches, universities, homes—you name it. No two Alphas look the same, but generally they have three key things in common: food, a talk and good conversation.

An Organizing Team will begin meeting in May. Please pray and see if God may be asking you to attend this fall, or even to invite a friend, a son, a daughter or a neighbour to attend with you.

We'll also need volunteer teams to help with food, childcare, and to serve as Table Group Leaders. Speak to Dr. Tim if you sense God may be nudging you to offer your gifts.

Task Force for Renewal

Rhonda Wishart

As described in the April edition of ConnXions, the Renewal Task Force has been developing a reVisioning process for St. Andrew's. This will involve everyone at St. Andrew's in a variety of steps and forms of engagement. The plans include seven steps, as described below:

1. Prayer Group
  - Establishment of one or two groups of 4-5 people who will pray for discernment on a weekly basis throughout the reVisioning process. The group (or groups) will pray for the Spirit of God to open the congregation and its leaders to discern more clearly God's vision and purpose for ministry as a congregation. The plan is for these groups to be up and running by September, 2019.
2. 5-day Silent Retreat for the Ministers
  - Dr. Tim and Rev. Jared will take separate 5-day silent retreats before the end of the summer, 2019.
3. 4-week Study Series for Elders
  - This 4-week study during the month of October, 2019 will be focused on growing spiritual leadership skills for the elders and will involve weekly small group meetings using a resource such as the "Spirit Led Leader" by Timothy Geoffrion.
4. Elder Prayer Partners
  - Throughout the ReVisioning process, each of the elders will be paired up with another elder to provide an opportunity for discussion, mutual support and prayer.

5. Congregational Discernment Event

- A coming together of members/adherents of the congregation in small table groups with a short study of scripture followed by questions where members/adherents are asked a series of questions such as “what is unique about St. Andrew’s?” to help us find commonality and develop our vision together. Each member/adherent would be asked to attend one of the two scheduled congregational discernment events on Sunday, Oct. 20th or Sunday Oct. 27th, 2019.

6. 4-week Worship Series for the Congregation

- The worship series, which will include four different Sunday sermons, will take place over a period of five weeks and will mirror the study for the elders. The period of five weeks enables members/adherents to also take part in a congregational discernment event on one of the two Sundays as set out in the schedule below.
- The current schedule for the worship series and congregational discernment events are as follows:
  - Oct. 6th - sermon #1 at both services
  - Oct. 13th - sermon #2 at both services (Thanksgiving)
  - Oct. 20th - sermon #3 at 9:30 service. No regular church service at 11:15 - rather, a congregational discernment event at 11:15 am (1.5 hours)
  - Oct. 27th - sermon #4 at 11:15 service. No regular church service at 9:30 - rather, a congregational discernment event at 9:30 am (1.5 hours)
  - Nov. 3rd - sermon #5 at both services

7. Elder Retreat

- Anticipated to be held on Saturday, November 9th, 2019, drawing the process to a conclusion with the articulation of a vision for St. Andrew’s, so that we are better able to become a living reflection of that vision and of God’s purpose. The clear articulation of that vision will better enable St. Andrew’s to become a place of purpose, presence and power.

The Task Force, under the leadership of Dr. Tim, includes Rev. Jared, Rhonda Wishart, Cathy Millar, Craig Murray, Lynn Judd, Kevin MacFarlane, Debby Dorcas and David Platt. We, the members of the Task Force, continue to be enthused about this journey and its possibilities for St. Andrew’s!

Please feel free to ask questions of any member of the Task Force.
